January Meditation

Peace and blessings for the New Year!

As we begin 2012, let us ponder the deep roots and extraordinary legacy of saints, service and public witness built by the faith of generations of Catholic families in our Archdiocese. We must be committed to sustaining this record by our actions in the present.

We as Franciscans have a grave obligation to pray for victims of clergy sex abuse and for their healing; to remember the many hundreds of our priests that have served our people with exceptional lives of sacrifice and character; to pray for decisions that will affect the number and location of parishes, schools and Catholic education of our young people.

Archbishop Chaput calls on each of us to take our baptism seriously; to work to renew our local Church with Christian charity, justice and zeal.

Scripture reminds us: Do not be afraid. God uses poor clay to create grandeur and beauty. He can use us to renew and advance the work of his Church – and he will.

If you are unable to fulfill your obligation to attend the monthly meeting, please call Rita Dourdoufis at 610-352-2413.

In the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi, our meditation is paraphrased from the Dec. 8, 2011 letter from Most Rev. Charles Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., Archbishop of Philadelphia

Pax et bonum..
